

About the Speakers

Dr Victor Dzau, President of the National Academy of Medicine and Vice Chair of the National Research Council, is a globally recognised leader in health and medicine. His research in cardiovascular medicine and genetics has significantly influenced health innovation. As a health leader, Dr Dzau has been instrumental in forming global health institutes and initiatives. His role in the National Academies has focused on advancing science, medicine and policy globally.

Professor Vincent Chung is the Convener (Education) at CUHK Hong Kong Institute of Integrative Medicine. His work focuses on evidence-based healthcare, randomised controlled trials and policy research in integrative medicine. With a master's degree from the University of Oxford and a PhD from CUHK, Professor Chung has been active in advancing the patient experience in Chinese medicine.