About the seventh CUHK Entrepreneurship Competition

The finals of the seventh CUHK Entrepreneurship Competition will see five finalists presenting their research and development ideas. A total of HK$100,000 will be awarded to the winner and the first and second runners-up. This year's competition invited Mr Derek Chim, Head of Incubation and Acceleration Programmes at Hong Kong Science and Technology Parks Corporation, alumni Mr Ricky Choi, Lead of the Smart Living Cluster at Cyberport, Mr Steve Lau, Founder and Managing Partner of Eagles Fund, Dr Samson Tam, Partner of Hong Kong Inno Angel Fund, and Mr Tony Tung, Managing Director of Gobi Partners GBA, to serve as star judges and provide advice to the start-up teams. To boost the competition's recognition, online participants and physical attendees will vote for the people's choice award. A brief introduction of the final five entrepreneurial concepts and their projects can be found at

About CUHK Alumni Torch Fund

CUHK Alumni Torch Fund, founded in September 2014 by a group of CUHK alumni and supported by the Alumni Affairs Office of CUHK, aims to promote a caring culture among CUHK alumni. It was set up to help CUHK alumni, in particular young ones, to strengthen their competitive advantages and exposure to entrepreneurial opportunities, and to encourage them to develop their expertise and achieve academic excellence.

About CUHK Entrepreneurs Alliance

CUHK Entrepreneurs Alliance (CUEA) members cover both school units and alumni organisations including the CUHK Alumni Torch Fund, the Office of Research and Knowledge Transfer Services, the Centre for Innovation and Technology, the Centre for Entrepreneurship, the Entrepreneurship and Innovation Minor Programme, the I-CARE Centre for Whole-person Development, the Pre-incubation Centre, the CUHK Shenzhen Research Institute, the Alumni Entrepreneurs Association, and the Innovation & Entrepreneurship Sub-committee of CUHK Convocation. CUEA organises regular entrepreneurship-related activities, building an effective and informative entrepreneurial platform that brings together CUHK entrepreneurs and inventors, and fosters a favourable, diverse ecosystem for entrepreneurial opportunities.
